Make this family of chicks for an eggs-tremely fluffy Easter...

It's Easter Sunday on 24 April!

1 First, you need to make a template for your chick. Use the compass to draw two circles on the cardboard – 10cm across with a 3cm smaller circle in the centre. Cut out the circles and then the smaller centre circles

2 Put the two rings face to face, then poke one end of the wool through the hole and tie a tight knot around the top of the card. Now loop the wool through the centre and around the edge,

3 Carefully put some scissors between the two card rings and snip the wool all the way around the edge. To keep the wool in place, take a length of wool, slot it between the card rings, and tie a tight knot. Now slip the card rings

4 For the chick's feet, cut out two 'D' shapes from the felt or orange card, and stick them onto the base of the chick using the craft glue. Cut one small triangle from the orange felt or card for the chick's beak, and coat the base of the beak

5 Part the middle of the chick and stick in place. Now glue on the googly eyes and - voila - one cheeky Easter chick!

TOP TIP! To make a family of chicks like we have, just make various-sized templates and use different types of wool for TOP TRICKS FOR 1 APRIL!

Check out these four jokes for a fun-filled April Fool's Day...

April Fool's Day falls on 1 April!

ALARMING PRANK

Set an alarm clock for 3am and then hide it in a super-sneaky place in your brother's or sister's bedroom. You'll be in stitches as you hear them bashing about looking for it!

TOO BIG FOR THEIR SHOES

Stuff some cotton wool into the end of your victim's shoes. When they try to put them on in the morning, they'll think their feet have grown overnight!

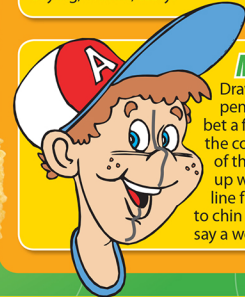

CREEPY-CRAWLIE CHUCKLES

Hide a big, fat raisin in your palm. Then make out there's a fly in the room and chase it about. Pretend to swat it and then eat the raisin, saying, "Mmm, tasty!"

MONEY MAYHEN

Draw along the edge of a penny with pencil. Then bet a friend they can't roll the coin down the middle of their face. They'll end up with a black line from head to chin – but don't say a word!
