James Elliman Academy Answers for Weekly Activities

Year 1

Week beginning: 23.03.2020

James Elliman Academy Answers for Weekly Activities

Phonics       Circle: jug, milk, crab.         P4: draw a line under the letters ay.       P5: copy the letters ay.         Write h/ay and p/l/ay in the boxes under the pics.       Circle the pic (picture) of the children with suitcases.         Draw a line under the letters oy       P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy         Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes       Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats.         P8 draw a line under the letters ea.       Copy the letters ea.         Copy the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.       Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.       Circle: Ohl         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks.       Match -They read their books - to the pic of children playing with bricks.         Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books.       Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.       Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their coats.       Mr and Mrs Patel got in their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their coats.       Mr and Mrs Patel got in their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got on their coats.       Mr and Mrs Patel got in their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got on their c		P2: Say the sound.
P4: draw a line under the letters ay.         P5: copy the letters ay.         Write h/ay and p//ay in the boxes under the pics.         Circle the pic (picture) of the children with suitcases.         Draw a line under the letters oy         P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy         Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes         Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats.         P8 draw a line under the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.         Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.         Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks.         Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their cars.         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car.         Oh dear!         Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words).         The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
P5: copy the letters ay.         Write h/ay and p/l/ay in the boxes under the pics.         Circle the pic (picture) of the children with suitcases.         Draw a line under the letters oy         P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy         Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes         Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats.         P8 draw a line under the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.         Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.         Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children with open books.         Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books.         Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car.         Oh dear!         Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words).         The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Write h/ay and p/l/ay in the boxes under the pics.         Circle the pic (picture) of the children with suitcases.         Draw a line under the letters oy         P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy         Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes         Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats.         P8 draw a line under the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.         Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.         Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children with open books.         Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car.         Oh dear!         Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words).         The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left
Circle the pic (picture) of the children with suitcases. Draw a line under the letters oy P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats. P8 draw a line under the letters ea. Copy the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes. Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks. P10 match Mr Patel to the boy to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no!Mr adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Draw a line under the letters oy         P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy         Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes         Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats.         P8 draw a line under the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.         Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.         Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks.         Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books.         Match -They read their books - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car.         Oh dear!         Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words).         The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left
P7: copy the letters oy into the box to spell annoy         Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxes         Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats.         P8 draw a line under the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.         Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.         Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks.         Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car.         Oh dear!         Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words).         The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Write t/oy and e/n/j/oy into the boxesCircle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats. P8 draw a line under the letters ea. Copy the letters ea. Copy the letters ea. Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks. P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic. Circle: Oh!PhonicsP11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children with open books. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel got in their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no!The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Circle the pic of boys wearing matching wide brimmed cowboy hats. P8 draw a line under the letters ea. Copy the letters ea. Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes. Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks. P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic. Circle: Oh! P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud. Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
P8 draw a line under the letters ea.         Copy the letters ea.         Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.         Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.         P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.         Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks.         Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books.         Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk.         Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats.         Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car.         Oh dear!         Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words).         The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes. Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks. P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic. Circle: Oh!PhonicsP11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no!The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks. Phonics Circle: Oh! P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud. Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Copy the letters ea.
Phonics       P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic. Circle: Oh!         P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books.         Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.         Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their         Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no!         The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Write the letters b/ea/d and b/ea/n into the boxes.
Circle: Oh! P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud. Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Circle the pic of the children with knife and folks.
P11 match -They play with their toys - to the pic of children playing with bricks. Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no!The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		P10 match Mr Patel to the boy pic and Mrs Patel to the girl pic.
Match -They read their books - to the pic of children with open books. Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud. Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital	Dhonics
Match -Their teacher is cool - to the pic of the woman with her feet on the desk. Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud. Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital	FIIOIIICS
Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud. Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats. Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Circle - the pic of people looking upset under a rain cloud.
Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop. Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Example dictation sentences to learn the tricky words -Mr Mrs oh their
Mr and Mrs Patel got in their car. Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Mr and Mrs Patel put on their coats.
Oh dear! Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		Mr and Mrs Patel went to their shop.
Oh no! The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital		-
The adult reads these sentences (or a sentence of your own using the tricky words). The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital
The child writes down the words as they hear them in a sentence starting on the left of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital of the page and writing across to right. Remember to use fingers spaces, capital letters and full stops. Check the spelling of tricky words if incorrect try again.
		letters and full stops. Check the spelling of tricky words if incorrect try again.
	Maths
Maths These are already in your Mental Workout books.		These are already in your Mental Workout books.