

Dear children,

I hope you are well, and have a lot of fun learning at home with your parents.

I am also working from home, and I am very busy planning new activities for you for the following week.

Today, I would like to send you something that will make you smile - a few jokes and a funny poem.

Jokes that make you smile:

1. Which is the best athlete you should take with you on a cold day?
(A long jumper)
2. "Doctor, Doctor! I keep thinking that I'm a dog."
"Do take a seat."
"I can't. I'm not allowed on the furniture."
3. What goes white-black-white-black-white-black?
(A penguin rolling down a snow hill)

Funny poem - Sneezles (by A. A. Milne - the author of Winnie-the-Pooh)

Christopher Robin
Had wheezles
And sneezles,
They bundled him
Into
His bed.
They gave him what goes
With a cold in the nose,
And some more for a cold
In the head.
They wondered
If wheezles
Could turn
Into measles,
If sneezles
Would turn
Into mumps;
They examined his chest
For a rash,
And the rest
Of his body for swellings
and lumps.
They sent for some doctors

In sneezles
And wheezles
To tell them what ought
To be done.
All sorts and conditions
Of famous physicians
Came hurrying round
At a run.
They all made a note
Of the state of his throat,
They asked if he suffered from thirst;
They asked if the sneezles
Came after the wheezles,
Or if the first sneeze
Came first.
They said, "If you teazle
A sneeze
Or wheeze,
A measles
May easily grow.
But humour or pleazle
The wheezele

Or sneeze,
The measles
Will certainly go."
They expounded the reazles
For sneezles
And wheezles,
The manner of measles
When new.
They said "If he freezles
In draughts and in breezles,
Then PHTHEEZLES
May even ensue."

Christopher Robin
Got up in the morning,
The sneezles had vanished
away.
And the look in his eye
Seemed to say to the sky,
"Now, how to amuse them
to-day?"

I will write to you again soon.

Please keep safe, listen to your dear ones who care for you so much, do your work, but have fun as well.

Don't forget to wash your hands very often for 20 seconds.

Ta, ta!

Yours,

Ms Constantinescu
