

Weekly Message (27th April)

Hello 1 Bond,

How are you today? Are you missing school yet? We know we are!

We both miss you very much! We hope that you are finding ways to stay active! Stay safe and take care of each other.

We hope you are reading every day! What books have you read lately?

Fun Fact of the Week: You cannot talk and inhale or exhale at the same time... try it!

Weekly Challenge: Anaya said she had 1 ten and 1 ones worth of stickers. When you helped her clean her desk, she only had a total of 10 stickers. How many stickers are missing?

Weekly Physical Activity Challenge: Make up a short dance and teach it to a family member!

Love,
Miss Pashchuk and Mrs. Pinkney.
