

3 Carroll Class message week ending 01 May

Hello 3 Carroll,

I have been thinking about you all...wondering how you are all getting along in this strange time of lockdown. My son said to me the other day, " I am living in History". It's true; in years to come you will look back and be able to tell younger people all about it. I hope you are all social distancing ( you should be really good at estimating 2m by now!) and washing your hands correctly.

Here is Juno practising her agility...she does not spend all her time in a chair!

I would like to see a lot more of your photos than I have seen so far – thank you to the people who have sent them. Here are some riddles to keep your brain active and make you laugh

What is full of holes, but still holds water? What is black and white and blue?

How many letters are there in the English alphabet?

When things go wrong, what can you always count on?

I know it is not always easy being at home, not seeing your friends, we are working to improve that for you. More news soon. The address below is a pack that you can download. It has lots of good advice and ideas to keep sane and healthy.
